

PROPERTY MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

LEADERSHIP

Chair: Jamie Meyer Vice

Chair: Nathan Satorie

MEETING DETAILS

- Third Friday of every month
9-10am
- RAL Board Room

Overview:

Each meeting has a different speaker to present on subjects relating to the current issues property managers face, and the current state of rental properties in the immediate market.

Value:

Opportunity to have an open forum with other property managers and hear from experts on topics that affect your industry.

Past Speakers and Topics:

- A business and tax consultant: Tax outlook for real estate, the difference in entity structures, conversion from one entity to another and sale of entity interests
- Steve Mason and Robin Spaeth: Importance of requiring renter's insurance and the differences between pet insurances pertaining to ESAs.
- Lorie Struve: Services Paul Davis provides and the inventory and restoring processes.
- Captain Mayde McGuire #1251 of LPD: Issues related to tenant-to-tenant disputes, overview of criminal activity and ways to work together to solve issues.

Committee Purposes:

1. To promote the property management profession through education and the exchange of ideas
2. To be aware of government action that affects the property management business and the rights of property owners.
3. To join with others in promoting fair housing and affordable housing.
